CISRS and Training Centres to offer 2nd Series Subsidised CPD Autumn/Winter 2023

The Construction Industry Scaffolders Record Scheme (CISRS) will once again, with the support of a group of their accredited training centres, be offering a number of subsidised CPD courses across the UK in the coming months.

The funding from CISRS will allow the training centres to charge just £50 per delegate, which is a substantial saving for employers and scaffolders.

Since the inception of CPD, CISRS and its participating training centres have put on over 120 subsidised CPD courses seeing a total reinvestment so far of over £450k.

CISRS is really pleased it is able to release a further series of courses in 2023 and thanks the participating training centres for their ongoing support of the programme.

The subsidised CPD courses will be held at the following centres:
